General Maxwell D. Taylor Chief of Staff United States Army Department of the Army Washington 25, D. C.

Dung Must:

While I have had my office got in touch with your office to regret our inability to attend your reception for the military attaches and their wives on 6 February, I wanted to pass this personal note to you.

I have accepted an invitation from General Lallay to visit again in his Headquarters in Comba, as it has been some time since my last visit.

Many thanks for your kind invitation, and I hope we will be able to get together in the mear future.

Sincerely,

TRIFF
